RESPECTED, INDEPENDENT ECONOMISTS CONFIRM THOUSANDS OF PILBARA JOBS LOST IF THE NATIONALS' MINING TAX GOES AHEAD

Western Australia and Pilbara economies will suffer with job losses.

"The damage to the economy would tend to ultimately be concentrated in the Pilbara."

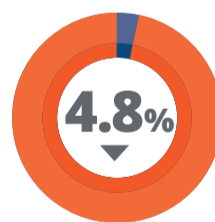

— Deloitte Access Economics November 2016

While most of the revenue raised would just go to Victoria and NSW.

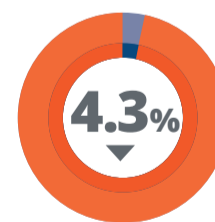

The proposed increase to the production rental charge will raise significantly less than claimed.

"The net effect would leave WA with something less than a net $300 million of the total extra of $2.3 billion raised every year."
